

Refund and Cancellation Policy

We will try our best to create the suitable design concepts for our clients. Our aim is complete client satisfaction. In the event, if you are displeased with the services, we will process the refund provided the reasons are genuine and proved after investigation. Please read the fine prints of each offer / contract before buying it, it provides all the details about the services and product you have purchased.

Our Policy for the cancellation and refund will be as follows:

Cancellation Policy

For Cancellations please contact us at info@msbcgroup.com with product / project name and detailed reasoning for cancellations. All our purchase contracts have cancellation / exit clause, please refer the offer / contract document for full details.

Refund Policy

In case any client is not satisfied with our products and services, we can provide a full or a partial refund depending on the case.

Refunds will be provided if reasons are genuine and proved after investigation. Refunds will be issued to the original payment source used at the time of purchase.

This policy exclusively applies to all the ORGADATA product and services in India only – By MSBC Group.